2010 Print & Projected Image Competition Weekend

Athlone Institute of Technology

13th & 14th February 2010

Competition Coordinator's Report

The IPF Workshops by Nicolas Berlingieri, MFIAP, were attended by 120 IPF photographers, who not only learned from Nicolas's expertise on Photoshop, but were also inspired by his creative imagination and his many methods of manipulation of images. The workshops were so successful that they really captured the audience and ran 45 minutes later than the time allocated for them. Mark Sedgwick, IPF President, produced copies of the CD PowerPoint presentations of the workshops and these were given to each participant.

The IPF dinner on Saturday evening was followed by a very informative photographic tour of China by Mr. Jacky Martin, EFIAP. The talk by Jacky was a very enjoyable way to end a great day.

The competition judging took place on Sunday and the IPF were very fortunate to have such a distinguished panel of international judges. They were Nicholas Berlingieri, MFIAP (Argentina); Jacky Martin, EFIAP (France) and Leo Palmer, FRPS, FPSA (England). Congratulations to all those who attained awards in the finals of the competition and thanks to all who supported the event and entered their images. I would specially like to mention Morgan O'Neill, of Mallow Camera Club who won the trophy for the Best Overall Image for his entry 'Sorry!'. It certainly deserved the award and is a really stunning image.

Epson very generously sponsored a 250 sheet box of photographic paper for each of the six gold medal winners, which were presented the day. CD Soft, Conn's Cameras, Dublin Camera Exchange, DML, The Camera Centre (Tallaght) and Gabriel O'Shaughnessy kindly donated prizes for the raffle.

I would like to thank all those who helped out on the day and in the preparation for the competition: Brian Hopper who looked after the projected images and assisted throughout the weekend; Maresa Fagan and her assistants from the Midland Photographic Group; Sheldon Photographic, Malahide; John Byrne from Tallaght Camera Club; Gerry Kerr, Celbridge Camera Club; Gabriel O'Shaughnessy and Tony McDonnell both from the Dundalk Photographic Society; and Bob Morrison, Mullingar Camera Club.

The weekend was followed by an IPF regional lecture tour by Leo Palmer. Leo's aim in life is to pass on to others the photographic knowledge he has obtained over the years and he certainly achieved this aim in his lectures showing his skills from the darkroom through to Photoshop.

Denis Whelehan, Competition Coordinator.
